Victories were also recorded by Ajay Patil, Vijay Sarde, Ajit Patil, Datta Bankar, Omkar Jadhav, Ashutosh Lad, Atharva Bhosale and Shri Chormare in their respective bouts.

The tournament began with the traditional worship of the akhara, performed by Sarpanch Mr. Bhimrao Patil, Deputy Sarpanch Mr. Shivaji Sawant and other village dignitaries.

Rose Merc Limited Director Mr. Purvesh Shelatkar said: "We are proud to support and preserve the rich wrestling heritage of Kolhapur that was patronized by Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj. Events like Sondoli Dangal keep this glorious tradition alive for future generations."

Jadhav Rose Merc Sports Pvt. Ltd. Director Mr. Dattatray Jadhav added: "Organizing a grand dangal in my own village has been a lifelong dream. After the overwhelming success here, we are now preparing to host an international-standard mud-wrestling championship in Dubai, which will open global doors for wrestlers from our region."

A giant LED screen was installed for the first time at Sondoli, ensuring every spectator enjoyed a clear view of the action. The event received wholehearted support from the Sarpanch, Deputy Sarpanch, Gram Panchayat members and the entire Sondoli community, including residents based in Mumbai.

Prominent dignitaries present included former MLA Mr. Satyajit Patil, industrialist Mr. Qazi Abdul Matin, Mr. Purvesh Shelatkar and Mr. D.R. Jadhav.

The bouts were officiated with utmost fairness by the referee panel comprising Shankar Patil, Amar Patil, Suraj Sawant, Vikas Sawant, Ananda Patil and Satish Kadam.
